Dear Parishioners of Saint Polycarp,

We begin this second week of October with a Gospel reading from the 28th Sunday (Mt 21:33-43), which presents us different responses from the invited guests to the wedding of the king's son.

To explore the depth of the Gospel, we need to look first from the perspective of the king. He is not an ordinary person; he is a king, a powerful person. His invitation to the guests to attend his son's wedding was done out of love, not out of force. Yet, the guests took lightly the matter: one to his farm, another to his business, and still others seized and killed the king's messengers. To the malicious group, the king got rid of them. However, the Gospel does not end there. It says that the king continued to extend the invitation until the wedding hall was filled. Then comes another twist in the story: a man showed up without a proper wedding garment. This man too was bound both hands and legs and was thrown out.

The message of the Gospel is never exhausted; it challenges us and brings us to a newness. Despite those who ignored and despised his invitation, the king continued to extend his invitation to those on street corners, not just those within his circle.

Catholics have equated the wedding feast as the Holy Mass, in which God, who is the King, continues to invite us; and even extends this invitation to outsiders who either long to hear Him or have not yet heard of Him. For some of us, who belong to the list of the invited guests through baptism, this Gospel reflects in our hearts and conscience of the time we reject God's invitation to the Banquet of the Holy Mass. Would be nice if all Catholics respond generously to God's invitation—that is, to come to the Eucharistic Banquet without excuses?

Lastly, October has been a tradition in the Church to honor or to venerate Our Blessed Mother. Saint Polycarp celebrated its annual Marian event last weekend (October 02—04). Learning from the generous king in the Gospel, we extend our love for Our Blessed Mother beyond the first week of October, by allowing this loving veneration to continue in our hearts and family. A special thanks to all who helped with the Marian celebration: a particular gratitude to the Parish Pastoral Council—namely Pat Casey (President of the Parish Council), Calvin Dang (Vietnamese Community Representative), and Nicolas Urban (Hispanic Community Representative)—the altar servers, sacristans, lectors, ushers, tri-lingual parish choirs, Youth Ministry (DMA, TNTT, LOL), and the Sisters from the Faith Formation Programs.

May God, through the Blessed Virgin, Saint Joseph, and St. Polycarp, bless you all.

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

El Rey de las Comidas Rechazadas

"Ella era la Reina de las Comidas Rechazadas."

Eso es lo que quiero que diga en mi lápida. Grabada en mármol, profundamente, para que el viento y la lluvia de mil años nunca puedan borrarla.

El humor, como puedes ver, oculta mi desesperación. Estoy segura de que muchos de ustedes conocen la sensación de sudar sobre la estufa caliente durante una hora para preparar un plato que un comensal pequeño y quisquilloso rechazará, con los labios curvados de asco.

Todos hemos preparado un banquete al que nadie quería venir.

Me parece que "Rey de las Comidas Rechazadas" es un epíteto que también podría escribirse en la tumba vacía. No me malinterpretes — ¡no me estoy comparando con Cristo! (Y definitivamente no comparo mi pobre cacerola de res y calabacines con la Eucaristía, el alimento de la vida.)

Solo digo que muchas noches, cuando estoy recogiendo platos de la mesa, me pregunto por qué me molesto. Me pregunto por qué no cedo y dejo que los niños coman patatas fritas y KitKats en cada comida como ellos quieren.

¿Por qué no lo hago? Bueno, culpa de madre, para empezar. Pero es más que eso, en realidad. Es la certeza que tengo, debajo del resentimiento, de que mis esfuerzos no son en vano, a pesar de todas las pruebas en contra.

La esperanza es eterna, ¿ves? ¿Cómo podemos los cristianos no ser optimistas? Nos han dado la bienvenida a un banquete preparado para otros. Encontramos nuestra salvación en la comida rechazada, al reconocer cómo se ve, se siente y sabe la verdadera alimentación, incluso — ¡especialmente! — cuando el resto del mundo no lo hace.

Quizá algún día mis hijos coman pollo a la parrilla de buena gana. ¿Quién sabe? Los milagros ocurren todos los días. LPi

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

Todos dependemos de los regalos que Dios nos da, y uno de ellos es el banquete que nos tiene preparado. Solo necesitamos el vestido de fiesta. Sin este, no somos dignos de entrar al banquete y disfrutar de su elegancia y distinción. ¿Dónde se encuentra ese vestido? ¿En qué tienda lo podemos comprar? Ese traje tan especial solo lo podemos encontrar en el Evangelio, diseñado con las enseñanzas de Jesús. Su corte y confección incluyen responsabilidad, justicia, bondad y paz; y, por supuesto, debemos portarlo con alegría en los compromisos de cada día: en la familia, con los amigos y en la comunidad parroquial y del vecindario que nos rodea.

En su tiempo, Jesús fue rechazado por los sacerdotes, escribas y fariseos, pues ellos no admitían la nueva imagen del Dios misericordioso que les mostraba el Hijo de Dios. Invitar al banquete y vestir de fiesta es para todos. "La Iglesia está llamada a ir a las encrucijadas de hoy, es decir, a las periferias geográficas y existenciales de la humanidad: esos lugares marginales, esas situaciones en las que se encuentran y viven fragmentos de humanidad sin esperanza. Se trata de no apoltronarse en las formas cómodas y habituales de evangelización y testimonio de la caridad, y de abrir las puertas de nuestro corazón y de nuestras comunidades a todos, porque el Evangelio no está reservado a unos pocos elegidos... Todos son considerados por Dios dignos de su amor. Él prepara el banquete para todos" (Papa Francisco, 10-11-2020). LPi

WORLD MISSION APPEAL

2ND COLLECTION

10/17/2026- 10/18/2026

Pope Leo XIV has chosen this year's theme: "One in Christ, United in Mission."

Let us all commit ourselves to contributing to the great mission of evangelization, which is always a work of love, according to our own vocation and the gifts we have received. Your prayers and practical support, especially on World Mission Day, are a great help in bringing the Gospel of God's love to everyone, particularly to the poorest and those most in need.

Every gift, no matter how small, becomes a meaningful act of missionary communion. Together, united in Christ, let us share His love and help bring the light of the Gospel to people throughout the world.

Pro Sanctity is an international Catholic lay movement founded by the Servant of God, Guglielmo Gualberto, in 1947. Its mission is to lead our brothers and sisters on the path of holiness and to elicit in everyone a total response of love to God's infinite love. Pro Sanctity offers people specific spiritual opportunities to help them respond to this universal call in three ways: personal holiness, communal holiness, and societal holiness. The Apostolic Oblates are consecrated women who support and spread the message of Pro Sanctity, assisting in bringing about a "world of saints, a world of brothers and sisters."

Marian Celebration - October 2, 2026

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus shares the Parable of the Wedding Feast, which tells of God's abundant generosity in opening salvation to all those who will accept it.

The King of Rejected Meals

"She was the Queen of Rejected Meals."

That's what I want it to say on my tombstone. Etched in marble, deeply, so the wind and rain of a thousand years can never erase it.

Humor, you see, masks my despair. I'm sure many of you know the feeling of sweating over a hot stove for an hour to create a dish that a small, picky eater will push away, lips curled with disgust.

We've all made a feast no one wanted to come to.

It strikes me that "King of Rejected Meals" is an epithet which could likewise be scrawled on the empty tomb. Don't mistake me — I'm not comparing myself to Christ! (And I'm definitely not comparing my sub-par beef-and-zucchini casserole to the Eucharist, the food of life.)

I'm just saying that a lot of evenings, when I'm clearing plates from the table, I wonder why I even bother. I wonder why I don't just give in and let the kids eat potato chips and KitKats for every meal like they want.

Why don't I? Well, mom guilt, for starters. But it's more than that, really. It's the certainty I have, underneath the resentment, that my efforts aren't in vain, despite all evidence to the contrary.

Hope springs eternal, you see. How can we Christians help but be optimistic? We have been welcomed to a feast laid for others. We find our salvation in the ultimate rejected meal, in recognizing what true nourishment looks and feels and tastes like, even — especially! — when the rest of the world does not.

Maybe one day my kids will eat grilled chicken willingly. Who knows? Miracles happen every day.

—Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Liturgical Life

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Life Explained

Question

How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer

Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way — in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can — and should — let our faith animate our lives!

Catholic Trivia

What is the name of the body-length white liturgical robe priests wear during Mass?

Answer: An alb

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son... 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast" ' "

- Mt 22:2, 4bc
